

MEDIA ADVISORY: First Lady Tracey Quillen Carney to Attend Kindergarten Registration Events Across the State Throughout November

WILMINGTON, Del. – First Lady Tracey Quillen Carney will attend four kindergarten registration events throughout the month of November to highlight the importance of supporting Delaware’s youngest learners.

Last month, the First Lady launched Delaware’s first statewide kindergarten registration campaign alongside the Delaware Readiness Teams to encourage families and caregivers to register students for kindergarten and help guide them through the process.

Governor John Carney has proclaimed November “Kindergarten Registration Month.”

All three counties will host family engagement events throughout Kindergarten Registration Month. A full list of events can be found here. Families and caregivers of children who will be 5 years old by August 31st are encouraged to register their student for kindergarten as soon as possible.
